SUPERVISORY PATENT EXAMINER

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Examiner submits that a new ground of rejection was not introduced in the Office Action (mailed July 14, 2004). Instead, Examiner replied to the Applicant expressing Examiners interpretaion of the claims and how the prior art read over the Applicants claimed invention. Examiner gave an explanation on the teachings of the prior art to help Applicant better understand the prior art. Examiner used a previously cited reference to also help Applicant better understand the prior art, and to show evidence of implicit teachings in the prior art. No where in the Office Action was the previously cited reference used to give a new grounds of rejection.

Applicants request for reconsideration also does not place the application in condition for allowance because Applicants arguments are not persuasive.
